BULLETIN No. 3

Experience New Opportunities at the Hub

The Nunawading Community Hub will open new opportunities for people to make new friends, learn new skills and participate in new activities.

Dynamic Hub Community

The broad range of local community groups, clubs and services that will call the hub their home is a major strength of the new facility.

Below are some of the larger groups who will make up the dynamic hub community.

- Whitehorse City Council Meals on Wheels
With the help of volunteers, this service delivers more than 1200 meals to approximately 300 Whitehorse residents in their homes each week. Centre-based dining will be available to eligible seniors.
- U3A Nunawading Inc U3A provides lifelong learning to people who are retired or semi-retired to help them stay active and engaged with the community. U3A Nunawading has more than 100 tutors delivering approximately 200 courses to its 2000+ members.
- Whitehorse Arts Association The association promotes understanding and enjoyment of the fine arts, and encourages participation in such activities through workshops with expert tutors, competitions, paint-outs and exhibitions.
- EACH (Eastern Access Community Health) EACH provides an integrated range of health, disability, counselling and mental health services to assist members of the community to lead happier, healthier lives.
- Nunawading and District Lapidary Club Inc The club brings together people interested in gems, minerals and fossils while focusing on the exchange of knowledge in gem-cutting, jewellery-making, enamelling and associated crafts. It conducts regular training courses, social activities and fossicking field trips.
- Blackburn Vikings A family-oriented basketball club fielding boys' and girls' teams from under 8s to adults. More than 100 teams are entered each basketball season to cater for over 800 registered players of varying ages and abilities.

- Whitehorse Activities Club Inc With 680+ members, the club offers diverse activities to help retired people to remain active in mind and body. Its activities cater for different tastes, abilities and levels of mobility.
- Whitehorse Chevaliers Fencing Club
The club supports people to learn and participate in fencing, whether they fence for fun, fitness or competition. Club members include adults, parent/teen fencing families, teenagers and juniors aged U13.
- Thornburn Ladies Badminton Association The club has approximately 60 members. Matches are played on Thursdays in a graded competition with section 1 in the mornings and section 2 in the afternoons.
- Rock City Church Formed in March 2019, the group is a multicultural, gospel-centred church with approximately 50 members.
- Chinese Women's Association The first organisation in Victoria of its type to provide services and support to female migrants of Chinese ethnicity, its aim is to promote the physical, mental and social wellbeing of its members and women in the wider community.
- Social Badminton These sessions are conducted on Tuesday and Friday mornings. Players must have some experience.

Finding Out What's on

To help people take advantage of all the hub has to offer, television screens and display boards located throughout the building will highlight group information and forthcoming activities. The hub's webpage will include links to the websites of the various community groups.

Operating Details

The hub is located at 96-106 Springvale Road, Nunawading (enter off Esdale Street).

The operating hours are:

- Monday - Thursday: 8.30am-10.00pm
- Friday: 8.30am-10.30pm
- Saturday: 9.00am-10.30pm
- Sunday: 9.00am-8pm

The hub will be staffed by Whitehorse City Council officers during these hours.

COVID-19 Update

Council continues to implement policies, procedures and additional hygiene measures in line with the latest Victorian Government's COVID-19 restrictions. All City of Whitehorse community groups and clubs must also continue to implement their COVID-19 plan, in line with government directives and guidelines of their governing body. Please forward a copy of your COVID-19 plan to Melinda Brown prior to recommencing your activities.
